Letter from the President

One of the key phrases that we employ in Jesuit education is magis. In its original usage, Ignatius invoked the term to ask “what more can I do for Christ?” Unfortunately, that initial intent is at times misunderstood or misused in our modern context simply to mean “more.” When magis is taken out of its original context, we might think that students are pursuing the magis when they add increasingly more to their already hectic schedules. Magis certainly is not about joining more clubs, taking more AP courses, or finding more ways to fill up one’s resume. I’m not suggesting that there is anything inherently wrong with these pursuits; I’m simply suggesting that adding more for the sake of more is not what Ignatius was suggesting.

Another great Jesuit phrase is ad majorem dei gloriam, which means “for the greater glory of God.” Any time you see AMDG, that’s what it stands for. The reason you’ll find AMDG regularly here at Bellarmine, or at any Jesuit school, is that we hope that everything that we do will bring God greater glory. And because we believe that God can be found in all things, those opportunities abound.

At a recent faculty/staff in-service, we all spent some time reflecting on and then dialoging about our own pursuit of the magis. We talked about when pursuing the magis means doing less, when it means going deeper with something we are already doing, and when it means challenging ourselves to step out of our comfort zones.

I know that for myself, I need to pursue more quiet in my life, so that I am not constantly allowing myself to be bombarded by emails, texts, music, television, and the thousand other voices that fill much of my days. I find that in my moments of quiet reflection and prayer are often when I have the clearest sense of God’s presence, and when I can find peace in the work in which I’m engaged. It also helps me be more present to the people with whom I find myself, and better able to see God at work through them.

It is our great joy in working with the young men at Bellarmine to help them to pursue this sense of the magis. I hope that when they are completing their service requirement, that they are able to do so not purely out of a sense of obligation, but with an understanding that they are serving as Christ’s hands, and represent love and care to those with whom they work. When they are in the pool, in a classroom, or on an immersion trip, I hope that they are free to listen to and care for their peers. You’ll regularly hear our students talk about the brotherhood that they experience here. I think that’s their way of articulating what it means for them to be in a loving, caring community of people who genuinely listen to and care for one another.

So many of you reading this magazine provide wonderful examples of the pursuit of the magis. You are generous with your time, your talents, and your treasure, and vital contributors towards the good work that is occurring here at Bellarmine. Thank you for your support of the school, and please pray for all of us that we will come to an ever deeper understanding of how we can pursue the magis.

President

Editor’s Note

As we enter the holiday season, it is appropriate to look back on the year now concluding, while we look ahead with great anticipation of the year to come.

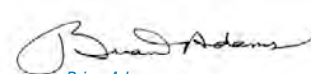

This issue of Bellarmine College Prep Magazine is the Annual Report of Giving edition, providing an opportunity to look back at academic and fiscal year 2014-2015, and to recognize the many donors whose support is so instrumental in making Bellarmine the unique community that it is.

Each individual, foundation, and organization that supports Bellarmine is, in a real sense, affirming our mission. Each gift greatly assists us in advancing opportunities for our students and in strengthening this beloved educational institution. We cannot adequately convey the depth of our appreciation for such generosity.

As our school’s Summit on Human Dignity theme of poverty is ever-present, during this season of gratitude let us especially be mindful of those who struggle each day and who find little for which to be thankful. Perhaps the greatest gift we can give is that of contact with, a smile for, and a helping hand to someone in need.

May you and your family enjoy many blessings this holiday season and throughout the year, and may you always realize how grateful we are for the important role you play as a member of the family that is Bellarmine.

Warm regards,

Kristina Luscher
Principal

Bellarmino's theme this year for our Summit on Human Dignity is poverty. Over the course of this school year, we will explore the causes and consequences of poverty, and we will reflect upon how God calls us to respond.

We kicked things off in September with a campus visit from Spencer West, an inspirational speaker for Me to We. He shared with us a few things he has done to raise awareness about the lack of clean water available to millions of people around the globe. When we returned to class, the students could not wait to get involved. One student researched how he could join Bellarmine's Free the Children club, another explored the Life Straw, and a third commented that he felt lucky that he had the opportunity to hear Spencer's story. Their energy was palpable.

The challenge is to sustain that energy and to not only look for things to do but to live in solidarity with the poor and marginalized. We are blessed with a community of students, faculty, and staff members who embrace that challenge. Experiences such as the Urban and Rural Plunge allow students and faculty to walk with those who are struggling, living in the homeless shelters of San Jose or working in berry fields in the Salinas Valley. The Solidarity Sleep Out in November enables students to learn about the experiences of those who have been homeless and then to experience what it is like to search for shelter.

Each day, I am struck by how blessed we are here at Bellarmine. The compassion of our young men regularly touches me. Their insight, creativity, and innovation inspires me.

I know that Bellarmine graduates do make a difference in their communities. I see it in the alumni that I work with here at Bellarmine. Last year, Kevin McMahon '90 launched Art Heroes, a nonprofit that links student graphic designers with organizations that need design work done. Fr. Jerry Wade, S.J. '55 inspires me with his unflagging energy and service to others. Dave Barone '85, chair of the math department, has thoughtfully mapped out a department-wide curriculum revision that links growth mindset research with Common Core standards. His passion for student success and his desire to slow down the race through mathematics has challenged me to search for other opportunities to deepen student learning.

The generosity of the Bellarmine community amazes me. I am so thankful to work with students, faculty, staff, parents, and alumni who challenge me to live out the Gospel message. It is the act of loving and caring for one another that will truly make a difference in the world.

I thank you for all the ways that you share your gifts and talents, not only with Bellarmine, but also with the community in which you live.

Mass of the Holy Spirit

The journey of a new academic year began August 19 by welcoming our students, faculty, and staff with the Mass of the Holy Spirit. This tradition of opening the school year by invoking the Spirit's presence, inspiration, and guidance dates back to the opening of the first Jesuit high school in Messina, Sicily, in 1548.

President Chris Meyercord '88 delivered the homily, expanding upon the theme of accompaniment described in the Gospel reading. Jesus' accompaniment of his disciples is not unlike our endeavors, as men for and with others, to accompany the poor and underserved in the world.

"Accompaniment is not something we do once and then forget about," said Meyercord. "We can't be present during our service hours or to a homeless person we meet and then ignore the suffering of those around us. No matter how many service hours we complete, the work is never completely done. If we are truly striving to emulate Jesus, then it informs how we are all the time – seeking to be the shoulder that people can cry on, the crutch in times of need, being there for a friend when we don't know the words to say. We hear a lot of talk about being men and women for and with others. This year, let's make sure we walk that talk."

The Mass concluded with the commissioning of and blessings for the Associated Student Body (ASB) representatives and the students they will be representing.

Nearly 400 Bellarmine College Prep students were enthralled by the story of Spencer West, the inspirational speaker and author of the best-selling book, Standing Tall. West visited the school on September 14 to share his journey and thank the students for their involvement in Free the Children and its mission to create a world where all young people are free to achieve their fullest potential as agents of change.

The address by the self-described "ambassador for social change" to those gathered in the Sobrato Center for Humanities and the Arts included visuals that reinforced West's personal story of overcoming obstacles to make a difference in the world.

"I never set out to be an inspiration," West told the students. "I just wanted to make the world a better place." He then challenged all to "find that something that lights that fire inside of you...find something worth fighting for."

West lost his legs from the pelvis down when he was five years old and, subsequently, faced numerous physical and emotional challenges. Over time, he learned that by forming relationships and working to make the world a better place, he could transform his life.

West has accomplished much, including building schools in poverty-stricken villages in Kenya and India, and inspiring countless people by climbing Mount Kilimanjaro on his hands and in a wheelchair in 2012 to raise more than $500,000 for a global clean water initiative while raising awareness of the devastating drought in Africa.

Free The Children is an international charity and educational partner. The Canadian-based organization operates collaborative programs both domestically and internationally. Bellarmine's Free the Children Club is one of many service-oriented campus clubs organized by students who live the school's motto of being "men for and with others."

Fiscal Year 2014-2015 | Annual Report of Giving Edition

Letter from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees

As my term as chairman of the Bellarmine Board of Trustees begins, I want to thank my immediate predecessor, Marc Rebboah '77, for his leadership. Marc's commitment to this institution, and that of our colleagues on the Board of Trustees and Board of Regents, was instrumental in the success of our fiscal year 2014-2015, which is reflected in this Annual Report of Giving.

This has been a time of transition at Bellarmine. I am grateful to Chris Meyercord '88 for succeeding Fr. Paul Sheridan, S.J., and seamlessly stepping into the role of president; and to Kristina Luscher for taking on additional responsibilities as principal, assisted by co-administrators. At the Board level, Matt Medeiros is now vice-chair of the Trustees, and Brian McSweeney '78 is chair of the Board of Regents.

An important aspect of these transitions is the relative ease with which they have occurred. The dedication of the entire Bellarmine community allows us all to focus on the guiding principles which advance our mission. To a person, each one of us entrusted with the responsibilities of stewardship for Bellarmine is committed to the relentless pursuit of providing the best possible educational experiences for our students, academically as well as through enriching co-curricular programs.

I am grateful to the many benefactors whose names are listed on the pages of this Annual Report of Giving. Your generous support during fiscal year 2014-2015 provided the resources necessary for Bellarmine to successfully achieve its educational and fiduciary objectives.

As an alumnus of Bellarmine, I am honored to chair the Board of Trustees, and I assure you of my personal commitment to work collaboratively with my fellow Board members, the administration, faculty and staff as we meet the needs of this exemplary institution in the important apostolate of Jesuit secondary education.

Gratefully,

President's Award Recipient 2014-2015

2014 President's Award Honorees

Linda and Joseph R. (Joe) Bronson

"The only way to change the world is to educate people in the right way."

Spend time with Linda & Joe Bronson

and a few things become clear. First and foremost is the love and respect they have for each other, attributes shared during their 42 years of marriage; a commitment exemplified by their renewal of vows two years ago. "We're each other's best friend," said Linda. "We've allowed ourselves to grow as individuals, and as a couple."

The Bronson's love of family is also evident, and they have high praise for their son and daughter, both of whom received Jesuit educations. Bellarmine alumnus Ian Bronson '97 is Director, Finance Programs, at Equinix Corporation. He received his BS degree in Business Administration from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, and his MBA from INSEAD in France. Meredith Bronson, a graduate of Archbishop Mitty High School, received her BA degree from University of San Francisco, and attained her law degree from Santa Clara University. In addition to passing the Bar Exam, Meredith is an accomplished swimmer.

Education — and Jesuit education specifically — is important to Linda and Joe. "Not only was I trained in my technical expertise, but my ability to write and think logically served me well in my career," said Joe recently about his time at Fairfield University, from which he received his BS degree in accounting before attaining his MBA from the University of Connecticut, where he was inducted into the Business School Hall of Fame in 2006. Joe is Principal and CEO at The Bronson Group, LLC, a business advisory group focused on operational and financial consulting. In addition, he is a Strategic Advisor to Cowen Group, Inc. investment banking division.

Linda and Joe see in their children the sense of ethics which are essential components to the Jesuit ethos of the education of the whole person. This values-centered philosophy is also evident in how the Bronson's have lived their life. "We've practiced what we've preached," said Linda.

That "practice" is manifest in the Bronson's generous spirit of philanthropy, much of it private, as they prefer to provide silent support to many institutions and charitable organizations. "The only way to change the world is to educate people in the right way," said Joe. "Ninety percent of our giving is in support of Jesuit education."

The Bronson's generosity of Bellarmine is exemplary. Beyond their remarkable financial support, both Linda and Joe share so much of themselves for the betterment of our students and our mission. Joe continues to serve on our Board of Trustees, of which he is past chair, and is a Regent emeritus. Linda has, for years, been instrumental in providing guidance behind-the-scenes related to the annual Golden Bell Auction, specifically in the area of jewelry. This is a specialty in which she has great interest, being a designer of jewelry herself.

The Bronson's appreciate Bellarmine for its quality of education, the faculty and staff's devotion to students, and the philosophy of providing tuition assistance for qualified students who have demonstrated financial need, including those of middle-income families, enabling the school to be culturally and socio-economically diverse. "What we (Bellarmine) have is very special, and pervasive, and consistent," said Joe, who is pleased to be part of an "outstanding" Board. "The people, themselves, are outstanding — every individual on that Board — and they care."

Joe's support of Jesuit education reaches beyond Bellarmine, as he is a member of the Board of Trustees of Fairfield University, and of the Board of Regents at Santa Clara University, where he also chairs its Leavey School of Business Advisory Board. Joe and Linda have established a woman's basketball scholarship at Loyola Marymount University (LMU), where Joe is a member of the Athletic Director's Council.

The Bronson's philanthropy extends to such organizations as Sacred Heart Community Service, Steve Young's Forever Young Foundation, and San Francisco Opera. Both Linda and Joe share a passion for sports, with Joe being an avid golfer and fan of basketball, baseball, football, and hockey, while Linda considers herself a "great cheerleader," especially for LMU's women's basketball.

Joe shared that he has always emphasized with his children the importance of having the perspective of "the big picture," with ethics being the foundation of any commitments one makes. "Don't lose the big picture," Joe has reminded them. "Don't lose why you do this in the first place."

We are grateful to the Bronsons for including Bellarmine within the frame of their "big picture," providing a canvas of opportunities and endless possibilities for our students.

Membership in the President's Club is awarded to those whose gifts or commitments were $2,000-$4,999 during the fiscal year or to those who otherwise significantly contributed to the life of the school.

Class Scholarship Fund 2014-2015

Current Student Giving

Bellarmino's Student Giving Program, which began with the Class of 2011, encourages all current students to make a gift in support of the Direct Financial Aid Fund, providing tuition assistance to many of their Bellarmino Brothers. Listed below are the names of students who participated in the program during Fiscal Year 2014-2015. Participating students from the graduating Class of 2015 are listed in the Alumni Giving section. All students who support the Direct Financial Aid Fund are exemplary role models for their peers, and for Bellarmino alumni, as their gift at any level represents the importance of giving back to an institution from which they have greatly benefitted.

Gifts-in-Kind

In addition to financial support, Bellarmine relies on the generosity of those who contribute non-monetary items and services, considered Gifts-in-Kind. This support saves the school dollars which we are able to apply directly to the programs and services we provide for our students. # Legacy Giving by Bill Colucci, Esq. '82 Director, Planned Giving

"One way to help us strengthen our educational foundation is to consider a legacy gift to the school."

The other day as I was preparing for the upcoming week of classes, I was perusing my bookshelf looking for a book (yes, teachers still use books and we often remind our students of their wondrous powers), and I came across a copy of The Regis Study Skills Guide written by Frank Walsh. If you attended Bellarmine around the same time I did, you may remember this slim paperback with the red cover as being your entree into the world of Jesuit education. The book was a serious attempt to get students to take charge of their learning, but crafted in a way that spoke directly to students. Yes, the illustrations have that late '70s, early '80s feel, but the advice and spirit of the book are still very much a part of the Bellarmine of today.

As I flipped through the pages, I came across the following: "Always remember that the overall goal of your high school education is, after all, to prepare or shape yourself as a student. Twenty years from now you will probably not be called upon to remember the name of Alexander the Great's horse, the precise date of Shakespeare's death, or that the sine of 90 degrees is 1. But you probably will be called upon, even several decades from today, to read and absorb information rapidly, to speak intelligently, and to write clearly and effectively. While many of your courses, and much of the specific information you are studying, may not seem vitally important to your life now or perhaps even to your future, you must remain ever aware that they aim at one final goal: becoming an independent learner who can succeed on his own in college or who can prepare himself for whatever job he desires."

One of the great joys I have working at Bellarmine is seeing that the core foundational experiences for our students remain to this day. While we consistently work on improving how we teach, there are still many things that remain a part of what it means to be a Bellarmine student. We don't simply do things because they are new and improved. We engage our students in the best ways necessary to build upon the foundation that has been built over the years by many teachers and scores of alumni.

As a friend or alumnus of Bellarmine, you know that we strive to inspire our students to engage in the learning process. We ask not that they simply learn numerous unconnected facts, but we ask that they develop and use the skills acquired inside and outside the classroom to become the men they are called to be.

One way to help us strengthen our educational foundation is to consider a legacy gift to the school. A gift to Bellarmine as part of your estate plan is a simple yet powerful way to ensure the continued education and formation of men for and with others in the Jesuit tradition.

If you have already established a bequest or other gift to Bellarmine in your estate plan, please let us know so that we can acknowledge your generosity and include you as a member of our legacy giving society.

To learn more about Planned Giving opportunities to support Bellarmine, please contact Bill Colucci, Esq. '82,

Director, Planned Giving, at 408.537.9279 or via email: bcolucci@bcp.org

Athletic Fields & Track Renovation Project

"The Jesuit ideal of cura personalis, or care for the whole person, is at the heart of everything we do at Bellarmine. With that in mind, our athletics program and facilities are an integral part of the student experience, and an important extension of the classroom. The Athletic Field Renovation Project is very exciting, and will provide state-of-the-art venues for our student-athletes."

Joe Romano
Director, Bellarmine Athletics

Bellarmino is undergoing a two-phased Athletic Fields and Track Renovation Project. Phase I, which began during summer 2015, includes synthetic turf replacement and the installation of new seating on the soccer/lacrosse field, (to be named Brigit Whims Memorial Field). Phase II, to occur summer 2016, includes synthetic turf replacement on the Ghorso Football Field, upgraded renovation of the track (to be re-dedicated in honor of Terry Ward), and a new, state-of-the-art scoreboard.

The turf replacement includes upgrades to an innovative CoolPlay infill system, designed to provide a high performance/low temperature surface.

All Bellarmine students benefit from improved athletic fields and track, whether they are members of a competitive team or enjoying physical education program activities. Your support is needed to ensure that the high standards associated with Bellarmine and its academic and co-curricular programs is also reflected in the quality of our athletic facilities.

Gifts at any level are greatly appreciated. Individual seat dedications at the soccer/lacrosse field are available at $1,000, and those capable of providing support at $25,000 and above will be included in donor recognition at the respective site.

For details, or to make a gift, please visit online: www.bcp.org/fieldproject

Bells Named National Merit Semifinalists

Fifteen Bells were announced as semifinalists in the 2016 National Merit Scholarship (NMS) Program. Less than one percent of U.S. high school seniors are awarded this status, which is based upon the student's performance in the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT).

About 1.5 million juniors in more than 22,000 high schools entered into the competition, with approximately 16,000 achieving semifinalist status. National semifinalists are the highest scoring entrants in each state, proportional to the state's percentage of graduating seniors as calculated against the national total.

To become a finalist, students must submit a detailed scholarship application, providing information regarding their academic record, participation in school and community activities, demonstrated leadership abilities and honors/awards received. Finalists will be named in February 2016, with those students eligible to receive National Merit Scholarship monies.

CORRECTION:

The article titled, "Class Act" in the summer 2015 edition of Bellarmine College Prep Magazine, which listed faculty and staff recently recognized for their milestone years of service to the school, incorrectly listed Leo Ruth at 40 years – rather than his 45 years of service – and neglected to include Tom Alessandri at 40 years. We deeply regret the errors, and we thank Mr. Ruth and Mr. Alessandri for their understanding. Both gentlemen are "class acts," indeed.

We want to know what's new in the lives of our alumni. To provide information and pictures for consideration in future editions of Bellarmine College Prep Magazine, please email Matt Zuniga, Director of Alumni Relations, at: mzuniga@bcp.org

Stay connected to the Bellarmine Alumni network. If you are changing your job or home address, please reach out to the Bellarmine Alumni Office at: stayconnected@bcp.org or update your information directly at: www.gobells.org by signing into your alumni profile account. We will then update your records in the school's database.

Why stay connected? We need your contact details to notify you regarding alumni programs, events, job opportunities, class reunions or related developments here at Bellarmine College Prep.

It's a great time to be a Bellarmine graduate. No matter where you live, no matter where you are in life – just beginning your career or just beginning your retirement – our alumni have more opportunities than ever to stay connected to Bellarmine and to each other.

Are you on social media? Join the more than 4,700 Bells who stay in touch through Bellarmine's official alumni Facebook group (www.facebook.com/gobells) or join the conversation on Twitter (www.twitter.com/bellarman). If you are looking to network, the Bellarmine Alumni group on LinkedIn is a great place to start. Whether you use one or all BCP alumni social media outlets, we'll make sure you stay connected!

NOTE: LinkedIn University Page launches for Bellarmine Alumni and Students! This is a great resource for finding connections at companies you want to work for, or in the new city you just moved to. For alumni who have been out of school a little longer, it's a good place to find connections at the companies you work for and/or with on a regular basis. Here's the easy part: If you're already on LinkedIn (and you've indicated you attended Bellarmine), you will need to remove Bellarmine from your profile, and re-add it to your profile page. As you type "Bellarmine" in the education field, it should auto-populate. If you're not on LinkedIn, create a profile today to see what it's all about. Staying plugged in to your alma mater keeps you up-to-date on your classmates' careers, news on campus, and job opportunities. Plus it helps the next generation of students better understand the variety of opportunities open to them in their careers.

MISSION STATEMENT

Bellarmino College Preparatory is a community of men and women gathered together by God for the purpose of educating the student to seek justice and truth throughout his life. We are a Catholic school in the tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the Founder of the Society of Jesus. As such, our entire school program is dedicated to forming “Men For and With Others” – persons whose lives will be dedicated to bringing all their God-given talents to fullness and to living according to the pattern of service inaugurated by Jesus Christ.
